

INFINITY & BEYOND

Participation, Confidentiality, Waiver & Release Agreement · signed electronically on entry to the private site · November 2026 circle

1 · PARTIES & ACCEPTANCE

Infinity Beyond Ventures LLC, a Florida limited liability company (EIN 42-5119986) with its principal office at 2900 NE 7th Ave, Apt 2801, Miami, FL 33137, is the organizer of the private retreat known as Infinity & Beyond. This Agreement is made between Infinity Beyond Ventures LLC (the "Hosts" — including its members Hector Maradiaga and Marcus Brodin, and its partners, affiliates, facilitators, contractors and the property owners, together the "Released Parties") and the individual accepting it (the "Invitee"). It is accepted electronically: entering the private site, signing through the electronic-signature service presented on entry (which records the Invitee's name, email address, IP address, the document version and a timestamp), and clicking "I Agree" has the same force as a written signature. The acceptance record — name, email address, date, time and IP address — is retained as evidence of execution.

2 · PURPOSE

The private site and briefing materials describe, in detail, the program, property, team and the traditional ceremony practices offered during the retreat (the "Detailed Materials"). The Detailed Materials are made available only to invitees who have first accepted this Agreement. The public-safe materials that circulate before acceptance intentionally describe those practices only as "holistic medicine."

3 · MUTUAL CONFIDENTIALITY

Each party agrees to hold in strict confidence, and not to publish, post, forward, screenshot, record or otherwise disclose, the following ("Confidential Information"):

- The Detailed Materials and everything in them — including descriptions of ceremonies and substances, pricing, itinerary, and the location and dates of the retreat.
- The identity of the Hosts, facilitators, staff and every other invitee or attendee, and any association between any named individual and the retreat or its practices.
- Anything seen, heard or shared at the retreat itself, including anything another attendee discloses in circle, in a session, or in private.

Confidentiality is mutual: the Hosts owe the Invitee the same duty regarding his identity, his medical disclosure, any screening results and his assessment information, and anything he shares. Exclusions: information that is lawfully public through no breach, independently known, or required to be disclosed by law (with prompt notice where lawful). The confidentiality obligations survive for five (5) years from acceptance; obligations regarding health information and identities survive indefinitely.

4 · NO ATTRIBUTION

The Invitee agrees not to attribute the Detailed Materials or their contents to any named individual, and not to represent that any named individual has offered, supplied, recommended or administered any substance. The Detailed Materials are informational descriptions of traditional practices facilitated by independent ceremony practitioners; they are not an offer, solicitation, sale or prescription of anything by anyone.

5 · INFORMATIONAL ONLY — NO MEDICAL CLAIMS

Nothing in the Detailed Materials is medical, psychological, legal or financial advice, and no health outcome is promised or implied. References to published research describe that research; they are not claims that any practice treats, cures or prevents any condition. Participation in any ceremony is entirely optional. Before any ceremony the Invitee must complete a confidential medical disclosure, which is reviewed by independent physicians engaged by the Hosts; independent physician screening (from a basic blood panel to a full diagnostic package) is optional, recommended, and arranged at the Invitee's own cost with the physicians directly. The physicians may decline any Invitee for any ceremony on the basis of the disclosure or of screening, and the facilitators or the Invitee may decline at any time, in each case without penalty beyond the terms in Section 7.

6 · ASSUMPTION OF RISK

The Invitee understands the retreat takes place at a remote, off-grid property in a rainforest and coastal environment, and that the program may include, at his option: physical training, breath-hold and open-water activity, surfing, hiking, boat travel, small-aircraft flights, and traditional ceremony practices that carry real physiological and psychological risks — up to and including serious injury or death. The Invitee accepts these risks knowingly, voluntarily and in full, agrees to complete the confidential medical disclosure fully and accurately before any ceremony (and understands that an incomplete or inaccurate disclosure is at his own risk), to hold the required individual travel-medical policy before he travels and to provide proof of it on request, and accepts that medical facilities are distant from the property.

7 • PAYMENT, REFUND & TRANSFER TERMS

The Invitee's place is secured and paid for as follows. Prices are per person, in US dollars, all-inclusive as described in the Important Information document, and vary only by accommodation tier.

- Deposit. A deposit of US$500 (the "Deposit") puts the Invitee's name forward for one of twenty places. It is credited against the first stage payment.
- Selection. Places are confirmed by the Hosts in their sole discretion. If the Invitee is not selected, the Deposit and any other amount paid are refunded in full.
- Payment stages. Once selected, the price is paid in three stages: (i) 25% of the tier price (less the Deposit) within seven (7) days of the Deposit; (ii) a further amount bringing the total paid to 75% of the tier price by 15 October 2026; and (iii) the balance by 30 October 2026. Payments are made directly to the Hosts; no financing is provided by the Hosts, and any third-party financing the Invitee arranges is his own responsibility.
- Withdrawal before the first stage. If the Invitee withdraws, or notifies the Hosts that he cannot attend, at any time before his first stage payment is made, the Deposit is refunded in full.
- Transfer after payment. Each stage payment, once made, is non-refundable, because the property and team are reserved and paid for on a fixed schedule. If the Invitee is unable to attend after a stage payment, the amounts paid are held as a credit and transferred to a later Infinity & Beyond circle (currently planned for February 2027), subject to availability and to any difference in price. No cash refund is made after the first stage payment, except as set out in the next two paragraphs.
- Physician decline. If the physicians decline the Invitee for the week as a whole on the basis of his medical disclosure or screening, everything paid is refunded in full, regardless of stage. If the physicians decline the Invitee for the ceremonies only, the Invitee may still attend the week, and the medicine opt-out credit below applies.
- Medicine opt-out credit. The ceremonies are included in the price. An Invitee who elects not to take part in the ceremonies, or who is declined for them, receives a credit against his price in an amount confirmed by the Hosts privately; the rest of the week is unchanged.
- Cancellation by the Hosts. If the Hosts cancel the retreat, everything paid is refunded in full within fourteen (14) days. If the Hosts postpone the retreat, the Invitee may elect a full refund or a transfer to the new dates. If the retreat cannot take place because of events beyond the Hosts' reasonable control — including natural disaster, severe weather, epidemic, government action, or the loss of the property — the Hosts may postpone it; the Invitee may then elect a transfer to the new dates or a refund of everything paid less any third-party costs the Hosts cannot recover, which will be itemised to him.
- Travel, insurance and third-party costs. International and domestic flights, optional screening, spa treatments and travel-medical insurance are booked and paid by the Invitee directly and are outside these terms. Proof of an individual travel-medical policy is a condition of attendance.

8 • WAIVER, RELEASE & COVENANT NOT TO SUE

To the broadest extent permitted by applicable law, the Invitee — for himself, his heirs, family and estate — releases, waives and forever discharges the Released Parties from any and all claims, liabilities, demands and causes of action of every kind arising out of or connected with his review of the Detailed Materials, his attendance, or his participation in any activity or ceremony, including claims based on ordinary negligence. He further covenants not to sue any Released Party on any released claim, and agrees this release is intended to be as broad and inclusive as the law allows. Nothing in this section releases liability that cannot be waived by law, including for gross negligence or willful misconduct.

9 • INDEMNITY

The Invitee agrees to indemnify and hold the Released Parties harmless from claims brought by third parties arising from his own breach of this Agreement, his own conduct at the retreat, or his unauthorized disclosure of Confidential Information.

10 • MEDIA & LIKENESS

No photography or recording is permitted during ceremony blocks. Group photography elsewhere during the week is opt-in. Neither party will publish the image, name or likeness of the other — or of any attendee — without written consent.

11 • GENERAL

- The Invitee confirms he is at least 18, legally competent, and accepts this Agreement freely, without duress, having had the opportunity to seek independent legal advice.

- Governing law and forum: this Agreement is governed by the laws of the State of Florida, USA, without regard to its conflict-of-laws rules. Any dispute arising out of or relating to it is resolved by confidential binding arbitration in Miami, Florida, in English, before a single arbitrator, and each party waives any right to bring a claim in court or as part of a class action, except to enforce an arbitration award or to seek an injunction protecting Confidential Information. Matters of health and safety on the property are also subject to the laws of Costa Rica.
- If any provision is held unenforceable, the remainder stands, and the provision is enforced to the maximum extent permitted.
- This Agreement, together with the published Important Information document, is the entire agreement on its subject matter and can be amended only in writing.
